

Apostles' Creed: God Still Takes Care of Me and All Creatures

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of all creation.

Genesis 2:1—3 Thus the heavens and earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day God finished His work that He had done. So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all His work that He had done in creation.

When the Bible says that God rested from all His work that He had done in creation, does that mean that God was tired and took a break? Does it mean that He was done with creating? Some people think that God made everything and then just sat back and watched it work. They call this the “Watchmaker” theory of creation. Martin Luther says that when God rested from His work of creation, it means that He didn’t create another earth or star or sun. Then He began His work of ruling and governing creation. He hasn’t left us alone. Jesus said, “I am with you always, to the end of the age” (Matthew 28:20). God still takes care of me and all creatures.

Prayer

Father in heaven, we thank You for making us and everything around us. And we thank You for taking care of us today. In Jesus’ name, Amen.
