

Kyrie Eleison

Today, we want to talk about the Kyrie Eleison. That's Greek for "Lord, have mercy." At this point in the service, we have already received His mercy for the forgiveness of sins in Holy Absolution. Now, we ask His mercy for all other things we need to lead a God-pleasing life. This helps us remember that God doesn't owe us anything. Everything we are and have are gifts of His grace and mercy. It also comforts us in the bad times. The next time things don't go your way, don't fuss or fret about it. Just bow your head and pray, "Lord, have mercy," and remember that in His mercy, He cares for you.

Prayer:

Lord, have mercy on us. We thank You for the grace and mercy You so freely shower on us every day. Amen.
