

Peace in His Glory

Luke 21:25-36

Introduction

Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near (Luke 21:28). The Explanation to the Small Catechism says that this verse shows us that Christ's return is a source of hope and joy for the Christian. Knowing He is coming back gives us comfort and peace. Today, we'll explore the Peace we have in His return.

Understanding Peace

As we've said before, Peace is a state of being, a sense of comfort and contentment we have as a result of our relationship with God and what He's done for us. Some people equate Peace with being serene. Having a mellow disposition doesn't mean one is peaceful. It's not about a feeling. We can have Peace and still get excited about things. Peace also isn't something we can conjure up on our own. Like faith, it's a gift of God.

Peace Through Repentance

We said Sunday that we get this Peace through repentance. We're at war with God, because of the sin in our lives. When we repent and confess our sins to Him, He forgives us. That removes the barrier between us and God, putting us in a right standing with Him. That means we're at Peace with Him. We have Peace, because we know we are right with God.

Benefits of Peace

Peace with Ourselves

Peace with God has multiple benefits. First, it gives us peace with ourselves. Have you ever felt like the cartoon character with an angel on one shoulder and a demon on the other? When we're right with God, we don't have that conflict. Oh, we still get tempted, and we still have our sin nature, but we don't get into fights with ourselves about right and wrong.

Peace with Others?

Sometimes, we might say we have peace with others. But if by Peace you mean being in total agreement with, then we don't have Peace with others. We're more confident in our dealings with others, because we know where we stand. We're on solid ground and our interactions with others are more positive.

The Day of the Lord

This Peace affects our life in the present, but it also affects our take on the future, especially the Day of the Lord. the Day of the Lord is a phrase used in the Bible to denote a time when God breaks into the world in a special way. In most prophetic literature, it refers to the coming of the Messiah. So, when we talk about the Day of the Lord, we're referring to the Second Coming of Christ. This is also called Judgment Day. (Read Matthew 25:31-34, 41). It's called Judgment Day, because that's when He will judge between the people of the world—the saved and the damned.

Redemption

Being at Peace with God means we look at Judgment Day differently. Christ is coming back to judge the world, but I know how I'll be judged. Because I have peace with God, He's going to take me to live with Him forever. For the one at Peace with God, Judgment Day is about Redemption.

Means of Grace

When we penitently partake of the means of Grace, He gives us that peace and the day of the glory of the Lord becomes not something to fear, but something to long for. Lift up your heads. Your redemption draws near!

*May the peace of God,
Which passes all understanding,
Keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.*
